Shocking Disclosures Made In Red Prisoner List

VIOLENT ACCIDENTS TAKE A RECORD TOLL OF NEARLY 750

FINE MONEY IS OFFERED TO JAILED FLIERS

Washington, Dec. 26—(AP)—Signs are that the government will turn down offers of private citizens to pay the $120,000 in fines which Communist Hungary has evaded against four U. S. airmen who strayed across its border. Final decisions were still being formulated today but it seemed probable the government itself would provide the money, if necessary to prevent the air force men from spending three months in jail—Hungary's alternative if the fines are not paid. All sorts of private offers to provide the money have been pouring in the state department since Hungary announced Sunday that a military court had convicted the four fliers of violating the border or the purpose of delivering spies. The court sentenced each to $30,000 fine or three months in jail.

Washington, Dec. 26—(AP)—While the government pondered what to do about Hungary's offer of a free four U. S. airmen in exchange for $120,000, private citizens in scattered areas promised to raise the money promptly. Robert Vogler, an American who was a prisoner of the Hungarian Communist regime for two years, said he will seek to coordinate private efforts to raise the $120,000 in fines levied against the four fliers. There was no indication as to how the State Department would react to these efforts to save the fliers. (Turn to Page Eight)

Officer Reveals Manner in Which Gen. Dean Was Betrayed by South Koreans

Pusan, Korea, Dec. 26—(AP)—Police today said two South Koreans led Maj. Gen. William F. Dean into Communist captivity in August, 1950, for $5 apiece. Chief Investigation Officer Yoon Myung Woon said the two had been arrested and freed on bail. He did not give the amount. Yoon said Cholla province police had orders to keep the men under "strict surveillance."

The officer said the two received "30,000 won ($5) each from the Reds for enabling the Red Army" to capture the U. S. 24th Division commander near Chinan, about 35 miles south of Taejon. Yoon said the men are Han Jong, 32.

Joe Kyoo, 34, and Choe Chong. He said they admitted receiving the reward for Dean's capture but declared they turned the money over to an unidentified Red organization. Yoon quoted the men as saying they had tried only to help Dean out they encountered Reds who captured him.

Dean was reported missing after the fall of Taejon in July, 1950. His name was on a prisoner list furnished the United Nations command last week. Since then Communist Correspondent Wilfred Burdett of the Paris Co. Solr gave Allied newsman notes on an interview he said he had with Dean in a Red prison camp at Pyongyang. Burdett also gave the newsmen pictures of Dean taken in the camp. The general's wife in Berkeley, Calif., confirmed that the man in the photo was Dean.

Yoon said Burdett's account verified a South Korean police investigation. The last letter to be received from Pfc. Donner was written in June of 1950, and his relatives were informed later that he was missing in action as the result of an engagement with the enemy which took place during July. Mrs. Bailey was anxiously awaiting possible news of her brother's whereabouts when she received the good tidings, the day before Christmas, from her mother in Arlington, Wash.

MRS. VIRGIL BAILEY'S BROTHER IS PRISONER

Mrs. Virgil Bailey, Brown Hill, Pa., has received word that her brother, Pfc. Donald E. Donner, 21, of Arlington, Wash., is a prisoner of war in North Korea. The last letter to be received from Pfc. Donner was written in June of 1950, and his relatives were informed later that he was missing in action as the result of an engagement with the enemy which took place during July. Mrs. Bailey was anxiously awaiting possible news of her brother's whereabouts when she received the good tidings, the day before Christmas, from her mother in Arlington, Wash.

Traffic Deaths Responsible For Over 500 Fatalities In Nation Over Holiday Period

By The Associated Press
Violent accidents in the United States took a near record toll over the four-day Christmas holiday. Deaths in traffic accidents, fires and from miscellaneous causes from 6 p. m. Friday to last midnight (local time) reached the staggering total of 747.

This figure compares with the record accidental death toll of 761 recorded in the four-day Christmas holiday of 1936.

Traffic accidents caused more than 500 fatalities, but the 508 total was below the 600 predicted by the National Safety Council. Fires caused 100 deaths—but none resulting from Christmas trees.

There were 139 persons killed in violent accidents of miscellaneous nature.

This year's total exceeded the 1950 accidental deaths of 724 which occurred during a three-day holiday. The 1949 three-day total was 530.

Texas reported more than 90 of this year's accidental deaths, including nearly 60 in traffic mishaps.

Ice-coated and snow-covered highways in the Midwest sharply curtailed travel and appeared a major factor in holding the traffic toll under the Council's estimate of 600.

Accidents killed 29 persons in Pennsylvania during the extended four-day Christmas weekend. Mishaps along the commonwealth's highways accounted for the major portion of the death toll. Twenty-three persons, including four residents of other states, died in automobile accidents between 6 p. m. Friday and midnight yesterday.

A four-month-old boy and a six-year-old boy were among three persons killed in fires. Two men drowned and two more were in fatal accidents involving trains. Only two accidental deaths were reported in the entire state on Christmas Day itself. Most of the deaths were recorded at the start of the holiday, Friday night, Saturday and Sunday.

Independence, Mo., Dec. 26—(AP)—President Truman put holiday affairs behind him today and turned to again on the job of being chief executive.

He left his home here at 3:15 a. m., CST, and sped by automobile direct to the Hotel Muehlebach in downtown Kansas City, where a penthouse suite is maintained as a sort of little White House when he is here.

Temperatures, which registered barely four degrees above zero on the thermometer of the Secret Service guardhouse at the Independence home, apparently combined with icy sidewalks to discourage the president from taking the early morning walk which he likes to take on his visits home.

It was the president's first visit (Turn to Page Eight)

CALIFORNIA 'QUAKE ROCKS SIX COUNTIES

Los Angeles, Dec. 26—(AP)—The serenity and calm of Christmas in southern California was rent by a late afternoon earthquake that was felt in six counties but caused no damage.

Epicer of the temblor was in the Pacific ocean, south of San Clemente Island. Ocean depths there range up to 6,000 feet, Dr. Charles Richter, California Institute of Technology seismologist, said the quake, which lasted between 20 and 30 seconds, was sufficiently strong to cause considerable damage if it had originated in a populous area.

Snow Blanket Creates Dangerous Driving Conditions in Section Over the Holiday

Just to be sure that Warren county did not have a tattle tale gray Christmas, a more or less obliging Mother Nature sent down a new blanket of snow which reached an added depth of five inches by time it ceased to fall, late Tuesday.

The Old Dame started to tuck this new coverlet up under the chins of her celebrants, Monday afternoon, and driving conditions in the borough and on the highways had become fairly dangerous by Tuesday night.

With business at a standstill in Warren, the community enjoyed an unusually quiet holiday. Traffic was light, and many parties which had been planned were short on attendance this year as those who planned to attend remained, instead, by fireside and Yule trees.

Christmas Day itself found many local folk and literally hundreds of visitors devoid of full Christmas spirit because of actual hunger.

14 Christmases Get Together for a Visit

Los Angeles, Dec. 26—(AP)—After 15 years, all 14 Christmases got together. Among them was Merry Christmas, Merry is three years old. She's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Christmas of Amarillo, Texas. Merry and her parents were among the Christmas family that assembled for Christmas at the home of Merry's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Christmas.

There was a wreath on the door, and inside, everyone was wreathed in smiles. Inside were Raymond Christmas of Wilmington, Calif., his wife and their son, Donald; Pvt. William D. Christmas, home on leave from Aberdeen Md., Proving Grounds; Mrs. Dorothy Christmas Chaney of Gardena, Calif., and her husband, Robert, and Mrs. Betty Christmas Sanborn, her husband, George, and their daughter, Peggy Diane.

Gorges Reported In River In And Near the Borough

Two ice gorges have formed in the Allegheny river near Kinzua, and ice was piling up today at the Pennsylvania Railroad bridge in Warren.

Those familiar with river conditions say these gorges, forming so early in the year, are caused by fairly substantial shore ice which broke away and into the stream as the result of warm weather which lasted for about 36 hours late last week.

Due to a gorge which formed last night near the Frank Baatz cabins, Johnnycake Run, the water was rising today and the road at that point, which is between Sugar Run and Corydon, has been closed.

Ice also has gorged at the Pennsylvania railroad bridge near Big Bend, south of Kinzua, and the river is at a high stage at Kinzua. Water had reached the cabins at the Complanter service station, Sugar Run, this afternoon and was still rising.

While conditions were not considered dangerous, it was said today that if a warm spell should come, the gorges would threaten a flood condition almost over night. At the Hickory street bridge, the river had risen to 6.2 today after a Tuesday reading of 5.16.

YOUNG MAN KILLS BOTH HIS PARENTS

Laramie, Wyo., Dec. 26—(AP)—A 28 year old railroad mechanic has admitted the Christmas slaying of his parents "because my father was ill and I didn't want mother to be left alone." Sheriff Ted Burnstad said.

Dean Henderson, stocky, blond-haired father of a seven year old girl, pleaded guilty to his arraignment yesterday in justice court on first degree murder charges. He was bound over for district court trial without bond.

His father, John, 62, railroad roundhouse worker, and his mother, Ethel, 54, were shot in the head with a .30 calibre rifle at their modest Laramie home about 8 p. m. Monday.

STATE OFFICIAL DIES
Harrisburg, Dec. 26—(AP)—Funeral services will be held Saturday for Gus M. Steinmetz, public relations director for the State Department of Internal Affairs.

Steinmetz, whose home was in nearby Lemoyne, died yesterday of a heart attack at Harrisburg Hospital. A veteran newsmen, Steinmetz once served as public relations director for the Republican State Committee.

STEEL GROUP WILL CONFER OVER WAGES

Pittsburgh, Dec. 26—(AP)—The highest authorities in the CIO-United Steelworkers of America meet here tomorrow to decide whether they will go through with a nation wide strike at midnight, December 31.

Philip Murray, president of both the CIO and the USW, has summoned the Steelworkers' two most powerful groups into action—the 38-member executive board and the 170-member wage-policy committee.

Apparently there are only two courses open to the Steelworkers: They, like the steel companies, can accept President Truman's mandate that there must be no interruption of steel production—vital to the U. S. defense effort.

They may go through the strike and face a possible presidential Taft-Hartley act crackdown.

The President asked both companies and union to turn the dispute over to the Wage Stabilization Board for settlement. Mr. Truman said the workers, if entitled to a wage raise, would get it; and the companies, if entitled to a price increase, would get it.

To agree to the presidential request, Murray will have to back down from his previous statement work without a contract. He can do this gracefully if his executive board and wage policy committee order him to do so tomorrow.

The union wants an 18½ cent hourly pay raise, guaranteed annual wage, the union shop, improved incentive and premium pay, and other benefits. The Steelworkers now get a little less than $2.20 an hour.

Just how big a raise the steel companies can pay, with or without an increase in the price of steel, is a matter of dispute.

If the USW persists in its plan to strike, there is strong speculation that the president may use the Taft-Hartley Act to obtain an injunction that would halt the strike 60 days. In that event the situation would be taken out of USW hands. To violate such an injunction would mean that both Murray and his union might face heavy monetary penalties as did John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers when they violated a similar injunction.

The calling of the policy-planners into session is regarded as a hopeful sign by most observers.

ARMY IS RAPPED FOR 'INEXCUSABLE WASTE'

Washington, Dec. 26—(AP)—A senate subcommittee has accused the Army of "inexcusable and indefensible waste" by "endlessly repeating training cycles" for some units.

A report by the group said that while these units are "marking time" some other units are being trained at camps where there is not enough space for field work.

"The nation gains no strength merely because more and more men wear army uniforms," the subcommittee said. "With our acute national manpower shortage, any assembly of able-bodied men into a non-productive enterprise any unnecessarily repeated training is the most flagrant sort of waste."

While rapping the Army on this and other matters, the committee said it is clear that "no one service is more prodigal or more prudent than the others."

WANGER SPENDS DAY WITH HIS FAMILY

Hollywood, Dec. 26—(AP)—Film Producer Walter Wanger spent a peaceful Christmas Day with his wife, Joan Bennett and their two small daughters yesterday. Today he stands in court to face a charge that he assaulted Miss Bennett's agent with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder.

The 57-year-old producer returned to the family home yesterday for the first time since he was arrested 13 days ago on charges that he shot Jennings Lang. At the time Wanger told police that Lang was breaking up his home.

His arraignment is in nearby Santa Monica superior court.

STEEL PLANT BLAST

Waynesburg, Dec. 26—(AP)—A gas explosion in the Crucible mine of Crucible Steel Company of America injured three to six men today. Three men, described by a company spokesman as not seriously burned, were rushed to the Greene County Hospital here.

MINE DISASTER—Two grief-stricken women try to comfort each other as they await word of relatives trapped in coal mine explosion at West Frankfort, Ill.

Miners May Stage Stoppage in Memory Of 119 Men Who Died in Illinois Blast

West Frankfort, Ill., Dec. 26—(AP)—An investigation to determine what caused the nation's worst mine disaster in 23 years began today deep in the wrecked workings of Orient Mine No. 2. Thirty-six investigators headed by John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers president, Jack Forbes, head of the U. S. Bureau of Mines, and Walter Eadie, Illinois mine department director, descended into the mine at 9:20 a. m. (EST).

West Frankfort, Ill., Dec. 26—(AP)—Speculation grew today that the nation's miners may stage a work stoppage in memory of the 119 men who died in the West Frankfort coal mine explosion. John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers Union, wouldn't comment on the work stoppage talk, however.

"I have no comment one way or another," he said. "I will neither confirm nor deny any rumors."

The PMW contract permits "memorial period" work stoppages of up to five days a year for mine disaster victims. Speculation growing daily in mining circles is that Lewis will call a memorial work stoppage delay around New Year's day. This would coincide with the threatened steel strike.

One miner, Cecil Sanders, was taken alive from the blasted tunnels after virtually all hope was abandoned. He has been given a good chance to recover. Sanders suffered a relapse Monday night and developed a fever, but he still was expected to pull through.

Christmas was a sad day for West Frankfort. Funerals were held for some of the victims and additional funerals were being arranged.

Yesterday the press was scheduled to interview Sanders but his doctor said his condition did not permit it.

The 44-year-old miner was allowed to participate briefly in a radio broadcast.

He said "nobody but God had anything to do" with his rescue. Sanders has been a Baptist church deacon at nearby Benton, Ill., for 17 years.

During his ordeal, Sanders himself apparently had given up hope of surviving. Lying exhausted and lapsing into intermittent periods of unconsciousness, the spunky miner scribbled what he thought was his final message. In it he told his wife:

"May the good Lord bless and keep you dear wife. You and the kids meet me in Heaven. (Signed) Husband and Dad, Cecil."

Investigations into the disaster were scheduled to get underway today.

Warren Bank and Trust Company Plans Operation of Two Branches in County

Warren Bank and Trust Company's stockholders have been notified that they will vote at their January 15, 1952, annual meeting on two charter amendments designed to allow the bank to operate branches in Warren county.

The first amendment authorizes an increase of the bank's capital from $300,000 to $500,000. As a member of the Federal Reserve System it must meet this minimum requirement of $500,000 stated capital before it can be qualified to operate any branches. The second charter amendment would permit conduct of branch places of business in Sugar Grove and Tidouite, after the capital increase. It is understood that the boards of Warren Bank and Trust Company, Sugar Grove Savings Bank and Tidouite State Bank have agreed on terms under which the Warren bank would buy the assets and assume the deposit and other (Turn to Page Eight)

FATE OF 155 AMERICANS IS UNDISCLOSED

Munsan, Korea, Dec. 26—(AP)—The Communists accounted today for 726 more captured Americans, but said 571 of them had died.

The other 155 escaped or were released, they said. But not one of these has returned to Allied lines, a United Nations command spokesman said.

The U. N. command called the report a "shocking disclosure." Communists said they were checking to see what happened to 332 other Americans.

After studying the Red report of 1,058 names, the U. N. command said they were all Americans. A spokesman said this was a list submitted Friday and Saturday by the U. N. in a demand for an accounting.

Another 45 men—20 British and 25 Americans—were not mentioned. The Allies asked about these 45 Monday.

The Allied announcement was the first disclosure of the precise number of non-Korean prisoners it had asked about—1,103.

The Reds detailed by name what had happened to 726. (The names were not released by the U. N. command.)

Inferentially they blamed Allied war planes and artillery for many of the 571 deaths. They died, the Reds said, of air attack, artillery fire and disease.

The Reds made their report in a note. It was delivered during an unproductive armistice session Wednesday at Panmunjom during the closing hours of a 30-day Korean truce trial period.

At the same session the Communists delivered the first bundle of mail from Allied prisoners in North Korea to their families. The number of letters was not reported. But the package was large enough to hold several letters. The Communist note also:

Rejected an Allied demand for an accounting of 50,000 South Korean troops missing in action. Asked the Allies what happened to 44,205 Reds the Communists said were captured.

Charged the Allied list of Red captives submitted last week was 1,456 short of the announced total of 132,472.

The letter, handed to Rear Adm. R. E. Libbey at a Panmunjom session by North Korean Maj. Gen. Lee Sang Cho, said the Reds were trying to account for 1,058 American and other non-Korean troops. The U. N. said they were listed in Red broadcasts, publications and other sources, but not included in an official compilation of 11,550 men in six North Korean prison camps.

Considerable Damage Results From Auto Accident Near Weldbank Over Holiday

City and state police each report one accident on Christmas Eve, with both accidents involving two parked cars. Injuries to motorists and passengers were minor, but property damage ran near the $3,000 mark.

At 6:15 p. m. Monday, a car operated by George A. Frederick, 19 Wetmore street, struck parked cars in the 1300 block of Pennsylvania avenue, west, owned by F. M. Nichols, Jr., 1111½ Pennsylvania avenue, west, and William Nelson, of Youngsville.

Emil Anderson, a passenger in Frederick's car, was treated at Warren General Hospital for a laceration over the left eye and head, shoulder and arm bruises.

Frederick told police he was driving west and was blinded by the lights of oncoming traffic. Upon pulling to the right, he struck the Nichols car which in turn struck the Nelson car. Damage to Frederick was estimated at $500, to Nichols about $500, and to Nelson about $150.

At 9:45 p. m. Monday evening, on Route 6 near Weldbank, a car operated by Joseph Strazisar, of Sheffield, also struck two parked cars.

Passengers in Strazisar's car, who included Joe Sabot, John Zaborovsky and Anthony Nagurny, all of Sheffield, were treated on the scene for minor injuries.

Strazisar told state police he was driving west and momentarily blacked out, striking the two cars owned by Harold Anderson, of Clarendon, and Arnold C. Williams, of Clarendon RD 1.

Damage to Strazisar's car was placed at $1,000, with about $800 to Anderson's car and $200 to Williams' automobile.

State police also had two fender crumpling accidents reported to them yesterday, neither of which occasioned filing of reports or investigation. One occurred on Route 62 between Akeley and the New York line, and the second near Starbrick.

Warren Marine Corps League Is Named In Honor of General Joseph Pendleton

That the local detachment of the United States Marine Corps League will henceforth be known as the General Joseph H. Pendleton Detachment was announced last evening, at the sixth annual Christmas dance sponsored by the Marines at the Woman's Club.

Mrs. Helen Pendleton Rockwell, daughter of the late Major General Pendleton, and a well known resident of Warren, was asked by Charles Warriner, commandant of the Detachment, to take a place of honor as he made the announcement. Mrs. Rockwell has been as "mother" of the local Detachment.

Major General Pendleton, who died in 1941, entered the United States Naval Academy when he was 16 and graduated in 1882. He was on duty in Washington a short time, but saw extensive duty all over the world with the Marine Corps, and was one of its most famous officers, the rank he won being the highest in the Corps at that time. Camp Joseph Henry Pendleton, Cal., is named in his honor. General Pendleton's widow, Mrs. Rockwell's mother, resides in Coronado, Cal., where she is often honored by the Marine Corps, and there is a son, Edgar Pendleton, in Denver, a brother of Mrs. Rockwell.

Mrs. Rockwell, deeply interested in the activities of the local Detachment, is a true Marine herself. She was raised practically in and by the Corps, and likes nothing better than to relate interesting stories of the Marines as she knew them when her father was on duty.

Last evening's Christmas party was a tremendous success, attended by members and friends of the Detachment, by servicemen and college students at home for the holidays. Music was provided by Orrie Beebe, at his organ, and by his large orchestra. There was a suggestion of Christmas in the decorations, with the Marine Corps flag and immense emblem holding places of prominence.

The committee was composed of A. H. Vogler, Charles Gruttara, Robert Gorsuch, Arthur Juliano and Robert Harrison.

THEFT DISCOVERED

Discovery of a break-in at the ride range of the American Legion Home in Youngville was made during the weekend when one of the rifle team members went there to secure some equipment. A large cabinet used to store ammunition, targets, petty change and other appurtenances was broken open and about $6.50 in cash missing as well as the cash box, valued at $3, and a carton of match ammunition valued at about $6. Members of the rifle club had not been using the range since Thanksgiving, so it is not definitely known when entry was made. Youngville police are investigating.

MOTORIST CHARGED

Francis Williams, 21, of Sugar Grove RD 2, was charged by Jamestown, N. Y., police with driving on a suspended license and without proper license plates on Monday evening, following an accident in Jamestown in which a Jamestown police car was damaged. Williams was released when he put up $95 bail for his appearance in city court.

BURGLARY SOLVED

A Christmas Eve robbery which included the theft of three New York and one Pennsylvania car landed four area youths in jail Christmas Day. One of the youths was a Marine home on furlough. A second boy was from Jamestown and the other two from Lakewood. The Jamestown youth and the Marine will be charged with first degree larceny, and the Marine will face an additional charge of violation of the Sullivan Law, unauthorized possession of firearms because of holding a revolver on the proprietor of a Corry gas station where about $60 was taken by the quartet. The young men told Jamestown police they stole a car from there about 11 p. m. Christmas Eve and drove to Warren, Russell and Sugar Grove where they wrecked the automobile. Abandoning the wrecked auto, the boys allegedly stole a second car in Sugar Grove and drove to Corry where the robbery was committed. When the second car became stuck in a snowdrift, they stole a third vehicle in Corry and drove it back to Jamestown. All four youths police said, have had previous police records.

Annual Christmas Party Is Staged By East St. Students

East Street School pupils enjoyed their annual Christmas party around a large, decorated tree placed in the center of the hall, singing in a program of Christmas songs and carols. Each room, from kindergarten through the eighth grade, participated in the program.

Paul Mutzbaugh's sixth grade students sang "Stille Nacht," the German version of "Silent Night," and pupils and teachers joining in the first verse in English.

Each room was appropriately decorated with Christmas trees, window paintings, posters and other Yuletide decorations made by the pupils. The children had made numerous gifts for their parents and Mrs. Mary Conway's pupils presented their parents with individual hand prints or plaques, a tradition for the past several years.

Sixth grade pupils, with the help of Principal Frances Grosch, Miss Mildred Ochs and Mr. Mutzbaugh, teachers, mimeographed a lovely Season's Greeting which contained original Christmas poems and Christmas legends contributed by the different grades. These greetings were taken home by parents by pupils of each grade.

After the group singing, the children had parties in their respective rooms, with the East Street PTA home room mother serving the "treat". Dixie cups, candy canes and home made, decorated cookies were served by Mrs. John Rapp and the following others: Mrs. Henry Lanman, Mrs. Todd Siggins, Mrs. R. S. Teen, Mrs. A. F. Yerg, Mrs. Boy Africa, Mrs. David Crosssett, Mrs. Clayton Burger and Mrs. William Cashman.

All in all, it was a grand party and teachers of the building are to be commended for their wonderful cooperation with the PTA in making the affair so successful.

COUNTY BOYS MEET—Cpl. Gerald N. Nelson, serving with the 51st Fighter Interceptor Wing in Korea, is pictured at the left as he was paid a surprise visit to Lt. Robert L. Blume, Third Signal Corps. Both boys attended Pleasant grade school and Warren High school and have been lifelong friends. Cpl. Nelson enlisted in the Air Force September 10, 1950, spent six months in Japan and has been in Korea for the past two months. He would like friends to write him at the following address: Cpl. Gerald N. Nelson, AF-6031, 51st Fighter Interceptor Wing, 51st Maintenance Squadron, APO 970, c/o Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif.

THE DAY AFTER CHRISTMAS

For his column today Hal Boyle, Associated Press feature writer, types an article that furnishes a fairly good description of the average home "the day after Christmas," especially if there are children in the family. He says:

The day after Christmas every child smells like peppermint candy.

So does a lot of the furniture the children have been climbing over.

Many a bright drum is already broken. Many a little girl puts down her fancy doll and goes back to pampering the old doll she has loved so long.

The first needler from the fair green tree begin to fall upon the floor. The golden-brown turkey of yesterday disappears into the mystery of hash.

Santa Claus has made the long voyage back home. His reindeer are back out of harness, and Mrs. Claus is saying, as the old Saint soaks his chilled toes in hot water, "I don't know how much longer you can keep this up. Every year you come back worn out."

"Well, every year there are more kids to remember," says Santa.

Christmas is gone, but it leaves a glow behind it that lasts until the New Year.

In some ways the few days left upon the calendar are even more enjoyable than Christmas Day itself. It is a relaxed time, a period for looking behind and planning ahead.

The house is still cluttered with the debris of the season, the tinsel and bright colors of yesterday, and the heart knows a mellowness better than excitement. It has the feeling you get from a fireplace, a kind of belated Indian summer of the spirit that lingers on.

The Christmas bills haven't come in yet, but your wife has already forgiven you for the fool you made of yourself at the annual office Christmas party.

Yes, it is a soft interval. There is gratitude for those who remembered you, and a twinge in your heart for the old friend that you yourself somehow overlooked. Never mind, he'll understand. Old friends always do. It's the new ones who tend to be touchy.

Your own troubles of the year seem smaller. A man finds the kindness to forgive his own mistakes, and the woes of other men touch him more nearly. He understands the bleak loss of a miner's wife in Illinois. . . . The loneliness of a prisoner in Korea. He hears, as the poet said, "the still, sad music of humanity."

People are knit together again by old memories across the mystic miles, a togetherness they wish would never fade.

It is a period of renewal, this tag-end time of the year, an inner flourishing that enables people, when it is over, to take up their lives again and go on in faith from here to wherever the new year leads. And that is the brightest gift of Christmas.

Seldom, if ever, has the town experienced a quieter Christmas Eve. Midnight services in the various churches were attended by capacity audiences, and special attention should be called to the fact that most of the clubs and taverns were closed before eight o'clock Monday evening.

Borough officials continue to do an excellent job in keeping streets navigable in spite of the snow fall that has been almost continuous the past couple days.

Many successful men have started on a shoe-string, says a New York banker. And others have wound up taking a lacing.

Four shopping days to enjoy those presents before the bills start arriving!

One of the next things on the agenda is consideration of those resolutions you expect to put in force come next Monday night!

The thermometer is in a class by itself—about the only thing we know of that has dropped.

Gosh, Don't We Have Fun?

Here And There

For a comparison of the Christmas in Warren fifty years ago with that observed Tuesday we referred to The Evening Times of December 28, 1901, to find a two-column article outlining some of the activities of the day, with the following lead:

"The weather on Christmas will not be recorded in history as ideal. As a matter of fact it was one of the most unpleasant days imaginable out of doors, but inasmuch as the real pleasures of the day were about the family altar, the damp, disagreeable conditions outside did not seriously interfere with the enjoyment of the day.

"The stores and business places were generally closed after twelve o'clock, and the streets presented a more or less deserted appearance, although there was plenty in the amusement line to call people out.

"The principal event of the afternoon was the reception at the Y. M. C. A. building. There was also a baseball game at the Laboratory and a matinee at the Laboratory theater, while at six and seven o'clock in the evening the trees in the various churches attracted hundreds of persons."

Under separate headings special mentions were made of the YMCA program, Library theater where the farce comedy "Bachelor's Honeymoon" was staged afternoons and evening; services in the First Lutheran, First Presbyterian,

First Methodist and St. Joseph's churches, and the indoor baseball at the armory, where a crowd of about 200 persons gathered to see the C. A. C. defeat the W.S.C. by a score of 18 to 11.

In the following letter Edgar Larson, formerly of Oakview, brings us down to date on the "Grasshopper Oil Excitement," subject of a recent article in the Times-Mirror:

159 N. E. 84th St.
Miami, Fla.

Dear Editor,
Your issue of Friday, December 14, which I received yesterday contains pictures and an article about the Grasshopper oil excitement which occurred in 1905. Wish to make a few corrections.

I was the one who discovered the Grasshopper oil on my father's property, John Larson, 108 South South street, when I was twelve years old. The well had been put down about a year before and was used to flush out the sewer system we had at the time and my job was to do the pumping on the particular day the oil was discovered. The water in the river was very low which brought the water level in the well down to a lower level on top of which the seepage oil was floating—and I pumped oil instead of water. A sample was brought to the Seneca Oil Works where it was tested and declared as pretty fair and we were offered one dollar a barrel for it. We pumped a lot of oil before our neighbor, Mr. Haggstrom put a well down in his bathroom which caused considerable excitement.

A record will be found in a book published by Mr. Miller of the West Penn Oil Company on Liberty street, called "Oil Mania."

The lower right hand picture is that of my father holding the pump handle in our front yard but this was not the original well.

Edgar M. Larson
Well, how's the weather up there? We're sitting here with doors and windows open at ten o'clock in the evening, perspiring.

This 'n That: "The Ford Fire-Fighting Special," recently placed in service as part of the Warren State Hospital Department, rated a picture and article by Virgil Zetterlund, in the November-December issue of "Ford Truck Times" . . . If the writer of the communication "Warren Is My Home Town" will communicate with us and identify himself we will be happy to give further consideration to his letter. . . . That was rather a mean trick the Weatherman played on Warren youngsters last weekend after borough officials had announced plans for barricading certain streets for protected coasting, and then the snow practically disappeared. . . .

Two-way radio used by the Erie Railroad for communication from locomotives to towers Friday night saved two unidentified rail passengers from a cold, cold ride to Jamestown, when they dashed back to the train after it had started to roll eastward, and were able to jump onto the steps only to find the doors closed and no way to attract attention of the trainmen; the crossing watchman noticed their plight and called the M. S. tower where the operator was able to radio the engineer who halted the train just west of Columbus. . . . Wonderful how
VICKS VAPORUB
IN STEAM works
when coughing colds strike

Special medicated steam brings DEEP-ACTION RELIEF from coughs and stuffiness.

Now those raspy, croupy coughs of children's colds can be relieved almost instantly with this home-proved treatment. . . . two heaping spoonfuls of Vicks VapoRub in a vaporizer or bowl of boiling water as directed in package.

It's easy, too! Your little one just breathes in the soothing steam. Every breath carries VapoRub's relief-bringing medicaments deep into troubled throat and large bronchial tubes. There this wonderful treatment medicates, and soothes dry, irritated membranes, eases away coughing, helps restore normal breathing. Real comfort comes fast! For coughing spells, upper bronchial congestion and that choked-up feeling caused by colds, there's nothing like using Vicks VapoRub in steam.

And always rub it on for continued relief. To insure continued action, always rub VapoRub on throat, chest and back. Works for hours, even while your child sleeps, to relieve distress. It's the best-known home remedy you can use when any cold strikes child or grown-up. VAPORUB

RADIO-TV DAY BY DAY

BY C. E. BUTTERFIELD

Eastern Standard Time
New York, Dec. 26—(AP)—Scheduled only for television, Harold E. Stassen, president of the University of Pennsylvania and a leading Republican, is announced for a "major political address" via ABC-TV on Thursday night.

His talk, at 9:30 is to come from a dinner in his honor at Philadelphia at which he is expected to discuss his recent European trip and "indicate his position in the national campaign of 1952."

Later in the week an hour's radio broadcast looking to the forthcoming presidential campaign will be carried by MBS. It will be at 10 o'clock Sunday night, the first half to have Democratic spokesmen and the other Republican. The general theme is "election strategy."

Democratic speakers are to include Vice President Albert W. Barkley, speaker Sam Rayburn and national chairman Frank E. McKinney. Among the Republicans will be national chairman Guy Gabrielson, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and Rep. Leonard Hall of New York.

Marlene Dietrich, signed for a radio series, will join the Sunday night schedule of AEC January 6 with an adventure drama titled "Cafe Istanbul." She will go on at 9:15 in the time Louella Parsons had for many years. A preview of the program is due next Sunday night.

Sarah Churchill, who has had an interview program on CBS-TV, will transfer to NBC-TV on January 6 for a weekly drama, The Playhouse. It is companion to the CBS Radio James Hilton Playhouse on Thursday nights.

IF AMERICA IS TO SURVIVE...

THIS NATION, UNDER Must
GOD, ~~SHALL~~ HAVE A NEW BIRTH OF FREEDOM!

- AND WE CAN HAVE A NEW BIRTH OF FREEDOM
ONLY WHEN WE INSIST THAT OUR GOVERNMENT
MUST HAVE A MORAL PURPOSE!

YOU HAVE a natural right — from God — to protect your Life, Liberty and Property. These are the three basic requirements for making your own living. These three gifts of God were given you with the responsibility for your own existence. And keeping any one of them is dependent on the other two. Isn't your LIBERTY to use the talents and faculties with which you were born an extension of your God-given INDIVIDUALITY? Isn't your PROPERTY an extension of the LIBERTY to use your God-given faculties?

If every individual has the right to protect his God-given Life, Liberty and Property, then a group of men have the right to organize and support a common force — a government — to protect these rights constantly.

Thus, a moral government must be formed on individual God-given rights, so —

THE PURPOSE OF OUR GOVERNMENT MUST BE —

"TO MAKE AND ENFORCE LAWS WHICH PROTECT EVERY INDIVIDUAL'S GOD-GIVEN LIFE, LIBERTY AND PROPERTY FROM THE INTERFERENCE OF ANY OTHER INDIVIDUAL OR GROUP — AND THESE LAWS MUST ALSO PROTECT THE PEOPLE FROM GOVERNMENT ITSELF."

All history proves that when a government does not have this purpose it becomes immoral.

Since an individual cannot lawfully use force against the Life, Liberty or Property of another individual, — then a moral government cannot lawfully be used to destroy the God-given Life, Liberty or Property of individuals or groups.

GUIDE TO FREEDOM

JUDGE ALL LAWS BY ASKING YOURSELF THIS QUESTION —

"DOES THIS LAW PROTECT EVERY INDIVIDUAL IN HIS GOD-GIVEN RIGHT TO LIFE, LIBERTY AND PROPERTY FROM THE INTERFERENCE OF ANY OTHER INDIVIDUAL OR FROM GOVERNMENT ITSELF?"

AMERICA BECAME GREAT BECAUSE PEOPLE HAD PRIDE IN BEING ABLE TO TAKE CARE OF THEMSELVES. WE MUST REGAIN THAT FAITH IN OURSELVES! WE CANNOT EXPECT THE GOVERNMENT TO PROVIDE FOR US IF AMERICA IS TO SURVIVE! TO REGAIN FAITH IN OURSELVES, WE MUST HAVE A NEW BIRTH OF FREEDOM.

HOW CAN WE HAVE A NEW BIRTH OF FREEDOM
— WHILE EACH YEAR MORE LAWS ARE PASSED TO GIVE GOVERNMENT MORE CONTROL OVER YOUR LIFE IN PEACETIME
— WHILE LAWS ARE PASSED TO TAKE AWAY MORE OF YOUR PROPERTY BY TAXES, TO PAY FOR HUGE NON-DEFENSE BUREAUCRACIES... TO PAY FOR THOUSANDS OF NON-DEFENSE GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES WHO HAVE GREATER AND GREATER CONTROL OVER YOUR LIFE, LIBERTY AND PROPERTY?

Youngsville EUB Youth Group Plans Christmas Drama

"The Other Shepherd", a drama of the first Christmas, has been selected by the Intermediate Youth Fellowship of Youngsville Evangelical United Brethren church for presentation at 7:30 p. m. Saturday, December 29.

The play, in four scenes and written by Dorothy Clarke Wilson, contains a beautiful message based on the biblical story of the announcement of the birth of Jesus to the shepherds outside Bethlehem.

A well-chosen cast has been working for several weeks in order to present the drama with the feeling and effect it richly deserves. In the cast are the following:

Ethan, the "other shepherd", John Lardner; Rachel, his mother, Renee Hodges; Jared, Ronnie Putnam; Abel, Bill Oehlenschlaeger; eri, Bill Carlett; Rebecca, Nancy Tuley; Deborah, Barbara Jackson; Amrah, Patty Crippen; Reuel, David Mourer; Joseph, Arnold Garriss; Mary, Florence McKinney. Other members of the organization will lead devotions, act as ushers, etc. Elaine Persing will be at the piano for the group singing and as accompanist for the play and for selection between the scenes.

The evening promises to be one of interest for all who appreciate church drama and the public is cordially invited. No admission charge will be made but a free-will offering will be taken to defray expenses.

WOMEN OF THE MOOSE
Warren Chapter, Women of the Moose, holding its regular meeting at eight o'clock this evening, will have a Moosehaven Chapter Night program presented by Gertrude Gleason and a large attendance is hoped for.

HOLLY HOP AT YW
All young people of high school and college age are invited to attend the Holly Hop to be held at the YWCA activities building Saturday evening, when there will be dancing from 8:00 until 11:30.

ZONTA LUNCHEON
Zonta Club members are reminding their regular luncheon-meeting at 12:15 p. m. Thursday will be held at the Hotel Carver instead of at the YWCA activities building.

Seneca Brownies Have Nice Christmas Party

Brownie Troop 49, of Seneca Street School, enjoyed a Christmas party at the home of the leader, Mrs. S. M. McClure, when guests were mothers of the girls and the Seneca teachers. Miss Grace Bell and Mrs. Paul Gary.

Entertainment was presented by the girls in the form of a three-scene play, "The Brownie Story," in which the following took part: Karen Yaegle, Cheryl Cadden, Gale Barone, Suzanne Zerbe and Michele Long.

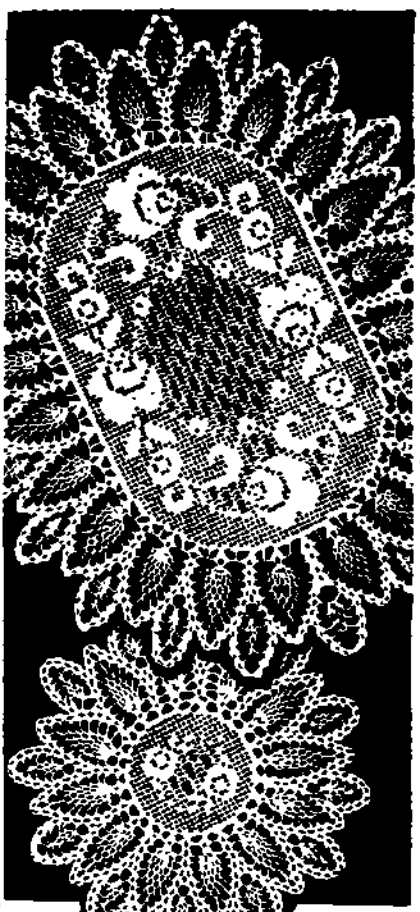

The stage crew included Martha Jane Sanford, Helene Louise McClure, Barbara Gorton, Mariene Gagliardi, Joan Sailor, Linda Nasman, Donna Cramer, Brenda Munson and Dianne Lundberg.

Mrs. E. H. Sanford led the group in singing Christmas numbers and each girl presented her mother with a crepe paper raffia basket made in troop meetings. Fathers were remembered by the troop members with handkerchiefs having initials done in textile paints. Each Brownie was presented a silk scarf by the troop sponsors. To conclude, refreshments were served by the hostess.

VEW POST-AUXILIARY CHILDREN'S PARTY

The VFW Post and Auxiliary have completed plans for their annual party for the children of members, to be held at 8:00 p. m. Thursday. The committee has a promise that Santa will pay a visit to the party, and each member is reminded to bring a child's gift.

MANY HAPPY RETURNS

Betty Lee hopes you had a very Merry Christmas — A Christmas filled with happiness and joy — And that you found everything you wanted under the Christmas Tree. We hope you found what you wanted in your size, too. But, like the little boy who bought his mama a slip and told the salesgirl, his mama had the most perfect size in the world—she did, too—but the salesgirl sent a size 34—she had a different idea than the little boy what a perfect size was. Mama's size was 52. Maybe this happened, in a modified version to you. If so, Betty Lee will be pleased to exchange any gift bought at Betty Lee to your size. Remember, no sale at Betty Lee is complete until the customer is satisfied. Many Happy Returns.

Youngsville EUB Youth Group Plans Christmas Drama

"The Other Shepherd", a drama of the first Christmas, has been selected by the Intermediate Youth Fellowship of Youngsville Evangelical United Brethren church for presentation at 7:30 p. m. Saturday, December 29.

The play, in four scenes and written by Dorothy Clarke Wilson, contains a beautiful message based on the biblical story of the announcement of the birth of Jesus to the shepherds outside Bethlehem.

A well-chosen cast has been working for several weeks in order to present the drama with the feeling and effect it richly deserves. In the cast are the following:

Ethan, the "other shepherd", John Lardner; Rachel, his mother, Renee Hodges; Jared, Ronnie Putnam; Abel, Bill Oehlenschlaeger; eri, Bill Carlett; Rebecca, Nancy Tuley; Deborah, Barbara Jackson; Amrah, Patty Crippen; Reuel, David Mourer; Joseph, Arnold Garriss; Mary, Florence McKinney. Other members of the organization will lead devotions, act as ushers, etc. Elaine Persing will be at the piano for the group singing and as accompanist for the play and for selection between the scenes.

The evening promises to be one of interest for all who appreciate church drama and the public is cordially invited. No admission charge will be made but a free-will offering will be taken to defray expenses.

WOMEN OF THE MOOSE
Warren Chapter, Women of the Moose, holding its regular meeting at eight o'clock this evening, will have a Moosehaven Chapter Night program presented by Gertrude Gleason and a large attendance is hoped for.

HOLLY HOP AT YW
All young people of high school and college age are invited to attend the Holly Hop to be held at the YWCA activities building Saturday evening, when there will be dancing from 8:00 until 11:30.

ZONTA LUNCHEON
Zonta Club members are reminding their regular luncheon-meeting at 12:15 p. m. Thursday will be held at the Hotel Carver instead of at the YWCA activities building.

A Formula to Help You Earn Respect of Others

If you want others to respect you: Always do the best job you are capable of doing. Don't be afraid to take pride in a job well done. Don't point out the defects in your own character and personality. The person who is always saying "The trouble with me is—" or "If I weren't so this or so that," shouldn't expect to stand very high in the regard of others. Don't always be a follower. Start something yourself now and then. Instead of copying others, let others copy you part of the time. Make small decisions easily and quickly. The "Well, I don't know," and "maybe" people don't win others' confidence, because they show too plainly they haven't much confidence in themselves.

PICK YOUR GOAL

DON'T be easily discouraged. Pick your goal and if you don't reach it by one route, try another. When you shrug your shoulders and say that you did EVERYTHING you could, you are usually just trying to excuse a failure that should have been a success. Keep your word, even in small things. If you say: "I'll meet you at ten o'clock," don't make it ten minutes after. Don't be afraid to say "No" when you feel it is the sensible answer. People will try to talk you into many things, but most people respect the person who can say "No" courteously but firmly. Don't be forever apologizing. That may seem like an easy way to keep others from being critical of you and your efforts. But it doesn't work. Respect, but don't envy others. Envy always shows, no matter how hard you try to conceal it. (All rights reserved, NEA Service, Inc.)

MR. AND MRS. DONALD N. DAMON

Palms and baskets of white bouquets provided the simple altar in First Lutheran church today, December 22, when Anne Delores, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerold Kehrl, 427 Prospect street, became the bride of Donald N. Damon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Deward Damon, Webster street, Fredonia, N. Y. The Rev. Edward K. Rogers read the ceremony at 2:30 p. m., with traditional music played by Mrs. Dorothy Engstrom. Dick Smith, callist, sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of white slipper satin styled with fitted bodice attached in points to gathered skirt which ended in long, slightly pointed train. Sleeves were pointed over the ends and were edged with lace. A same trim being repeated in a pelet and on the skirt front. A veil of nylon net illusion had lace Chantilly lace trim and was attached to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white eyeer book topped with shower bouquet of white pompons, carnations and roses.

Attending as maid of honor, her sister, Gretchen, wore heavy faille taffeta in a shrimp color and carried peacock carnations and pompons. The bridesmaids, from Buffalo, were Laurene Hicks, in chartrreuse and Marilyn Hager, in peacock blue. They had similar gowns and matching picture hats, and their flowers, like the maid of honor's, were in bronze and shrimp shades.

Everett Damon, Owego, N. Y., was best man and ushers were Gardner Thompson and Alfred Jopek, Fredonia; Edwin Montfort, Portland, N. Y.

The reception followed in the parish house at 3:00 p. m., with a guest list of 100 including the following from out of town: Mr. and Mrs. Everett Damon, Owego; Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Deward Damon and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Jopek, Fredonia; Mr. and Mrs. Norris Damon, Mrs. Elizabeth Mason, Nora McMenen; Charles Weller, Dunkirk; Edwin Montfort, Portland;

Mr. and Mrs. Jack O'Hagen, Mrs. Mae Damon, Jamestown; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Berline, State College.

After January 1, the newlyweds will reside at 980 Taft avenue, Atlanta, Ga., where Mr. Damon is a senior at Georgia Tech. Both young people are graduates of Brocton Central High School, the bride continuing at Buffalo's Deaconess School of Nursing and employed for the past three months at Warren General Hospital. Mr. Damon is a co-op employee of the Niagara Mohawk Power Company, Buffalo.

Honoring the bride-elect have been Mrs. William Simonson; the bridesmaids; Mrs. Gardner Thompson, Fredonia; Mrs. Ed Kehrl and Ruth Kehrl; Mrs. G. E. Kehrl.

Report On County Defense Bond Sales

The people of Warren county purchased an additional $77,934.00 in U. S. Defense Bonds during the month of November, Glen E. Stone, chairman of the County Defense Bonds Advisory Committee, announced.

Of the total sales $63,286.00 were accounted for by purchases of Series E Bonds, which can be held only by private individuals and usually are purchased through the Payroll Savings or Bond-A-Month Plans.

In Pennsylvania, November sales of Series E, F and G Bonds totaled $29,379,512.75, compared to $28,007,220.75 in November of 1950. Series E Bond sales for November, 1951, totaled $28,473,075.75, compared to $22,101,089.25 sold in November of 1950.

Defense Bonds sales in Pennsylvania have topped the 1950 figures for the past three months, according to the County Chairman, indicating the wholehearted support thrown behind the recently concluded Defense Bonds Drive.

CHRISTMAS BABIES

The Christmas tree at Maternity Hospital was heavily laden, Christmas, with three families being remembered. Daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blum, 609 Pennsylvania avenue, east, and to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Green, 425 Chestnut street. There was a son for Mr. and Mrs. Loren Wright, Sheffield.

Plans Announced for Warren's Part In National Drive To Sell Israel Bonds

Warren's part in the national drive to sell $500,000,000 of State of Israel bonds got under way here today with the naming of Jack Levinson, prominent businessman, as chairman of the local campaign.

Mr. Levinson assumes his post at the invitation of Henry Morgenthau, Jr., former Secretary of the United States Treasury and at present chairman of the board of governors of the American Financial and Development Corporation for Israel, which is conducting the national sale of the Israel bonds.

In accepting the chairmanship here, Mr. Levinson emphasized that buying Israel bonds is an investment that binds our country with our sole ally in the Middle East.

"We have watched Israel's courageous battle to become the youngest democracy in the world," Mr. Levinson said. "We have already seen their ability to maintain themselves against almost insurmountable odds—and now they offer us an opportunity to invest in their growing economy."

The young State's population has more than doubled in the past three years, since its statehood in 1948—and another 600,000 immigrants are expected to cross their borders by the end of 1953.

"This tremendous population increase, almost without parallel in modern history, has caused a dislocation in Israel's economy," Mr. Levinson explained. "Proceeds from the $500,000,000 bond drive will go to correct this situation by building factories, farms, developing industry and harbors, so as to absorb the thousands of newcomers."

These funds will allow Israel to complete their three-year industrialization plan that will make that country a self-supporting country, he said.

Two types of bonds are offered the American people, interest and dividends payable in American dollars: Savings Bonds, similar to our own U. S. Bonds, which return 150% on the original purchase price; and Coupon Bonds which bring 3½% dividends paid in two installments annually.

Mr. Levinson announced that a meeting is being planned for Sunday evening, January 13, at which time a nationally-known speaker will describe an eye-witness account of the latest developments in Israel.

FIRE CALL

After a safe and sane Christmas Day, in which there were no fire calls, city firemen were out in force at 9:18 a. m. today when a small crude storage tank, owned by E. J. Larimer, and located on Bauer street, was discovered burning. Cause of the fire is not known. Although the tank was full of crude oil, firemen knocked out the fire with only minor loss by use of foam and crossfire from booster tanks. Engines One and Two, the high-pressure truck, and the emergency truck answered the call, spending 37 minutes away from the stations.

FIRM PASSES OUT SHARES

Each employee of the Dresser Manufacturing Division at Bradford who has been with the company for a year has a new share of stock in Dresser Industries, Inc., today as a Christmas present. The firm passed out shares to 720 employees. As the stock is selling for about $24, the total gift amounts to $17,000. Last year the company gave each of 594 employees a share valued at $18, a total of about $10,000.

Old-Time Printer Passes Away At Colorado Springs

James P. Marker, 80 years old, retired printer of Warren, passed away at the Union Printers' Home, Colorado Springs, Colo., last weekend, according to word received by his wife who resides on the Jackson Run road.

Mr. Marker was born in Sheffield, April 4, 1871, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Marker, who moved to Warren soon after his birth. He spent his boyhood in this community, and early in life became an apprentice printer for the late Ed Walker soon after the Evening Mirror was launched. It was not long after he became a journeyman printer that he was promoted to foreman of the composing room, a position that he held for many years, through several changes in ownership of the paper.

Mr. Marker was obligated in the International Typographical Union in this city June 8, 1901, and was one of the oldest living members of the union in Warren. He was married May 12, 1891, to Naphala Miller, of this city, who survives with the following children: Ralph Marker, Salamanca, N. Y.; Mrs. Lester Hale, Akeley, and Mrs. Doris Williams, Eldred. There are nine grandchildren.

Mr. Marker retired from active work because of ill health in 1936, soon after which he was admitted as a patient to the Printers' Home in Colorado Springs. His frequent letters to members of the Times-Mirror force and other friends in the community always reflected a keen desire on his part to keep in touch with his associates in and around Warren. Some months ago he had submitted to a major operation, but latest word from him indicated that he was recovering satisfactorily, and word of his death comes as a deep shock to all who enjoyed his acquaintance.

American life expectation at age 65 now is 13 2/3 years.

MRS. MINNIE M. COBB
Mrs. Minnie M. Cobb, 79, wife of Raymond E. Cobb, of Bear Lake, died at Corry Memorial Hospital about a. m. December 25, following a long illness. She was admitted at the hospital on December 17 when her condition became serious.

Mrs. Cobb was born in Columbus township on December 29, 1871 and had resided here most of her life. She was a member of Lalac Rebekah Lodge 250, of Bear Lake.

She was married to Fred F. Perkins in 1891, and he preceded her in death in 1921. In 1922, she was married to Mr. Cobb, who survives.

Also surviving her are three sons: Alec Perkins, of Youngstown, O.; Eugene Perkins, of Erie; and Roy Perkins, of Bear Lake, RD; a sister, Mrs. Eva Saunders, Westfield, N. Y.; also 11 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Removal has been made to the Bracken-Keating Funeral Home in Corry where friends are being received and from where services in her memory will be held on Friday at one p. m. with Rev. Ivan Rossell, pastor of Ashville Methodist church, and an old family friend, officiating.

Burial will be made in Bear Lake cemetery.

North Warren To Discuss the Fire Truck Situation

As a result of a mishap which leaves North Warren with only one available fire truck, every resident of the North Warren and Venturatown communities is urged to attend an important meeting at 8 p. m. tonight in the North Warren Community House.

All three engine blocks in the 28-year-old pump truck, a 1923 model, were cracked while the truck was on duty at the fire in Lander, Thursday, when the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Cowles was destroyed. It is not available for use, and must be replaced or repaired as soon as possible.

A representative of the American LaFrance Company will examine the truck today, and will be prepared to give estimates on repairs and the trade-in value of the truck toward a new piece of apparatus.

Chief Robert Mahan of the North Warren Volunteer Fire Department, today urged all who can possibly do so to attend tonight's meeting.

BRADFORD HAS FIRST TRIPLETS SINCE 1916

Bradford, Dec. 26.—(P)—A factory worker's family got a post-Christmas gift of triplets today.

Three boys were born by Caesarian section to Mrs. John Westerlund, 32. It was the first triplet birth in this northwestern Pennsylvania city since 1916.

Westerlund is an assemblyman in a plant which makes oil well supplies. He and his wife, Lettie, have two other children, a girl, five, and a boy of two. Physicians said two of the triplets were identical. The babies, all doing well along with their mother, weighed five pounds, seven and three-quarters ounces; four pounds, six and one half ounces and four pounds and 14 ounces.

four fliers from serving three months each in jail.

Imprisoned are Capt. John J. Swift of Glen Falls, N. Y., Capt. Dave H. Henderson of Shawnee, Okla.; T/Sgt. Jess A. Duff of Spokane and James A. Eiam of Kingland, Ark.

They got lost in the air over Hungary Nov. 19 while flying supplies from Germany to the U. S. embassy in Belgrade, Yugoslavia. Soviet fighters forced them to land their unarmed C-47 on Hungarian soil.

On Sunday the Hungarian government announced that a military court had convicted the fliers of violating the Hungarian border and had fined them 360,000 florints (about $30,000) each, with the alternative of spending three months in jail.

The State Department was still debating what to do about the Hungarian demands. A department spokesman declined to comment to various offers to raise the fine money privately.

Vogler, a European representative of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., has had experience with the Budapest Red regime. He was imprisoned by it for two years, accused as a spy. He later repudiated a confession he made, saying it was coerced.

His release last spring involved property concessions by the U. S. to Hungary, but no direct money payment.

MENU SUGGESTIONS

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

CORN squash is a budget value. Delicious food at this time of year. Fry cooking it with apples (use chest now) or stuffed with savory rice.

Scalloped Squash and Apples
(Suggested by the New Hampshire Extension Service)
(Serves 4)

Two pounds of squash, 3 tart apples, 2 tablespoons brown sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 cup cream.

Is a cooking dish arrange alternate layers of raw thin-sliced squash and raw tart apple slices. Season each layer with a little brown sugar, salt, and dots of butter.

Cover the top with outtered bread crumbs and bake at 400 Deg. F. for 60 minutes or until the vegetable and fruit are tender and the crumbs brown.

Squash with Seasoned Rice
(Depending on the way the squash is cut, 2 or 3 generous servings)

One large acorn squash, 1 cup cooked rice, 1 cup ground cooked meat, 1 tablespoon minced onion, 1 tablespoon parsley, 1/4 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, dash of Tabasco sauce, 1/2 cup milk, fresh bread crumbs for topping, butter or margarine for topping, cheese sauce.

Cut the squash in halves or thirds depending on what size servings are desired. Cook in boiling water or pressure saucepan until tender. Mix the rice, onion, parsley, Worcestershire sauce, Tabasco sauce and milk.

Fill centers of the squash with the mixture. Top with the bread crumbs and dot with butter or margarine. Bake in a moderate oven (350 Deg. F.) until lightly browned. Serve with your favorite cheese sauce.

When left-over rice is used, when the stuffing is made ahead of time, be sure to allow the squash to remain in the oven long enough to heat the rice thoroughly in addition to browning the crumb topping.

TOMORROW'S MENU
BREAKFAST: Stewed apricots, shredded wheat, bacon rolls, coffee, milk.
LUNCHEON: Cauliflower soup, crackers, minced ham or pork, sandwiches, shredded lettuce and cabbage salad, oatmeal cookies, tea, milk.
DINNER: Tomato juice baked acorn squash stuffed with savory rice, buttered Brussels sprouts, corned beef, butter or margarine, molded cranberry and celery salad, deep-dish apple pie, coffee, milk.

FORMER WARREN STARS IN JAMESTOWN TILT TONIGHT

When the squad of ex-Warren stars journeys to Jamestown at 9 o'clock tonight to participate in the second Annual College Basketball Tilt at the YMCA they will be without the "hoped for" services of Neil Nelson, now home on leave from the Army.

In a telephone conversation with the former Warren High four-year star last night he replied, "I don't think so, I haven't had my hands in a basketball for a year."

However, the local squad will still be able to present a seven-man squad against the former Jamestown High cagers with George "Ace" Hesch topping the list. Hesch is the freshman sparkling on the Gannon Knights' five at Gannon College, Erie. His speed, shooting ability, and team work will be a great help to the locals in offsetting the New Yorkers' attack.

The other collegiates on the team will be Harry Danielson, a regular on Indiana State Teachers' College five, and Paul Gordon, a member of the University of Pennsylvania freshman club. Completing the list are Chuck Reese, from the University of Pittsburgh; Ed Lindberg and Bob Reese of the Texas Lunch squad, and Bob Simpson of the Style Shop, both in the YMCA-City League.

Dick Howard, 6-6 center for Western Reserve University, heads the Jamestown roster. Filling out the remainder of the eight-man squad will be Cy Weaver, Grove City; Gordy Anderson, Bethany College; Milt Garfield; Bob Ford; Hobart; Art Edstrom; North Park College; and Al Foster, Cortland State Teachers' College.

The probable lineups are: Warren, forwards—Gordon (5-11) and Danielson (6-2); center—Lindberg (6-2); guards—Hesch (6-6) and Reese (5-11); Jamestown, forwards—Weaver (6-2) and Anderson (6-4); center—Howard (6-6); guards—Wawson (6-3) and Garfield (6-1).

McDougald Wanted to Leave After He First Saw the Yanks

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—How does an unheralded recruit feel reporting to the world champion Yankees for the first time?

"I wanted to go home and climb right back on that mail truck," says Gil McDougald.

How is an unknown kid with an unorthodox batting stance treated?

"Great," says the cocky-carried young Irishman who stayed to be the American League Rookie-of-the-Year.

"I had never played third base, so Bobby Brown spent hours showing me how to play the hitters."

Harry Coleman's hitting fell off, so I was switched to second against right-hand pitching. The first one out to help me was Coleman.

Paul Rizzuto came out early and helped me, too, showed me where he wanted the ball thrown on double plays. He wanted the ball tossed shoulder high, so he could get it away quickest. He made me work on it until I thought my arm would drop off. I got so I didn't even have to look at second. I simply scooped up the ball and threw. Paul was always there."

McDOUGALD puts his finger on that thing they call Yankee spirit. It's the team that counts. It doesn't matter if a player's job is threatened. Snuffy Stirnweiss rooted Coleman right into his shoes. Tommy Henrich sat out the 1950 World Series to make room for Johnny Hopp. Joe DiMaggio coached Mickey Mantle, his successor-to-56.

McDougald, now a professor at the American Baseball Academy in New York's 212 A.A.A. Armory, reveals that he would have quit baseball had he not made good the past season.

"I couldn't support my family on minor-league pay," says this alternating infielder, an old pappy guy with three youngsters and another coming at 23.

"Henrich told me how he felt when he first saw all the Yankee stars in 1937, advised me not to press, to take things in stride. I made up my mind to stay and dug in. I had to stay."

Through The Wind Tunnel

No place in the world do the bells of Christmas ring as loudly as in Warren. At least, from the standpoint of hospitality.

And it may be our imagination, but it seems we can still hear them ringing today!

Twenty-five years ago, it was our opinion that Warren had the best-looking girls in the U. S. A. Conditions have not changed. It embarrasses us a bit to admit it, but probably many of those charming young creatures who decorated the Marine Corps dance last evening, are daughters of the ones we knew at quarter of a century ago. Granddaughters? Well, let's see; no, not quite.

And one of the little lassies called our attention to: "Well, the boys are cute, too!" It's possible to pick out some of them and, for one example, say with confidence: "He must be Fred's son," etc. Sure enough, one of them was Freddy Prints, Jr., home from Johns Hopkins.

Get out the wheel chair, reach in the umbrella stand for the crutches! It's later than we think.

Bradley lost a heartbreaker to Utah, last night, 52-50.

The mail is all delivered, the boys will return today to the "club," determine whether Kentucky's as good as the papers claim, who's to win at Jamestown tonight, who's from college as hasn't put in an appearance as yet, and which feminine ensemble at the Marine Corps dance should get the purple ribbon.

Did you hear the Schneck children on the air, including the big, lanky one? It was a swell program, but listening between the lines, we decided Daddy LeRoy was just waiting to divest himself of that milk and get back on the sun porch to resume his activity with the toys.

In one of the stores we saw a beautiful bread basket we'd like to have sent to LeRoy for Christmas. Its thermos attachment was interesting, too, and provided room for thought.

Borough Manager McConnell won't miss a game next fall. As a gift, he received a beautiful grandstand blanket and two bleacher pillows. Never a very windy guy himself, Max is going wild to start training so he'll have wind enough to inflate the seats by the time football season starts.

Among the six coaches interviewed for the head football coaching position at the University of Pittsburgh were Dr. Eddie Baker, football coach at Carnegie Institute of Technology, and Johnny Michelsen, recently replaced coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers. The other four were Pitt assistant coaches.

Members of the Northwestern Coaches Association, who met recently in Corry, have voted to discontinue the Edinboro Coaching Clinic and Annual All-Star football game for at least one year. The reason given for this action was that interest in the clinic and grid game had been temporarily exhausted.

In last year's All-Star game between the District and Erie County All-Stars, Warren was represented by Fullback Ed Shanahala and Tackle Paul Shattuck. The District eleven won by a wide margin.

Charmed Circle Is Crowded Spot With Hurlers Pouring In Chicago, Dec. 26.—(AP)—The 1951 American League baseball season was a big one for pitchers with six hurlers crowding into the charmed 20-game winning circle—the most since another half dozen made it in 1922.

Sharing pitching honors with the big winners was Saul Rogovin, 206-pound righthander who was traded to the Chicago White Sox by the Detroit Tigers early in the campaign.

The 28-year-old Rogovin, regarded as a "sore-arm" flinger before Sox manager Paul Richards overhauled his delivery, proved the most effective twirler in the major leagues. Official American League statistics released today show Rogovin with an earned run average of 2.78.

Chester Nichols, rookie Boston Brave southpaw posted an ERA of 2.88 to top the National League. The earned run leader is determined under a new rule requiring appearance in 154 or more innings. Rogovin appeared in 27 games, completed 17, pitched 217 innings and had a 12-8 record. He allowed only 79 runs, 67 earned.

Eddie Lopat of the New York Yankees was the only other A. L. twirler to come in under the three-run mark per nine-inning game—a standard not reached by any pitcher in 1950. He had 2.91. The Cleveland Indians contributed three 20-game winners. They were Bob Feller (22-8), Early Wynn (20-13) and Mike Garcia (20-13). New York had Lopat (21-9) and Vic Raschi (21-10). The sixth was the St. Louis Browns' Ned Garver (20-12).

Lopat is the only left-hander in the group. Steered by its trio of 20-game winners, Cleveland topped the team earned run average for the fourth straight year with 3.38 while Chicago was second with 3.50 and the world champion Yankees third with 3.66.

Cleveland's Bob Lemon allowed the most hits, 244, and the most runs, 119. Tommy Byrne, of New York-St. Louis, repeated for the dubious bases-on-balls lead by walking 150, ten under his 1950 total. He also hit the most batters, 15.

The most defeats absorbed by one pitcher was 14, with six flingers being nicked for that number. Feller and Washington's Dick Starr fired the most "gopher balls," each being tagged for 22 home runs.

New York's Albe Reynolds, who included two no-hitters, against Cleveland and Boston, in a 17-8 record, led in shutouts with seven.

Northerners Claim One Touchdown As Big Game Is Dying

Miami, Fla., Dec. 26.—(AP)—Vanderbilt's Bill Wade, a cagy quarterback with a slingshot arm, pitched the South to a stunning 35-7 victory over the North in the Shrine's fourth annual college all-star charity football game in the Orange Bowl last night before 39,955 spectators.

Wade, six-foot two-inch 205-pounder from Nashville, Tenn., threw 27 passes for 15 completions, and 250 yards to shatter the old record of 12 completions for 144 yards set by Tex Furse of Yale in 1943.

Three of Wade's passes netted touchdowns and he walked off with most valuable player honors. It was the South's third and most decisive victory in the series.

In the first 20 minutes of the game, staged for the benefit of the Shrine's crippled children, Wade completed 11 of 18 passes for 224 yards to give the south team a 21-0 halftime lead.

Given fine protection by an alert, hard-charging Rebel line, Wade pitched pin-point passes to his teammates from Vanderbilt, Ted Kirkland and to Zippy Morocco of Georgia. One of his passes to Kirkland was good for 69 yards, including 35 gained after Kirkland caught the ball over his shoulder and outran two would-be tacklers.

In the final quarter Wade set up another score with two runs of 18 yards apiece. Florida's Floyd Huggins smashed over for the South's last two scores. Alabama's Harold Lutz kicked all five extra points.

In the dying minutes of the game the North managed its only touchdown. It came on a 35-yard pass from Colorado college's Bob Black to John Turco of Holy Cross.

Kentucky Is Again Teacher's Pet With Illinois As Second

New York, Dec. 26.—(AP)—To the surprise of practically nobody, Kentucky's basketball team is back at the head of the class in the weekly Associated Press poll.

The question before the house, however, is—can it stay there? Two teams have tried it in the first two weeks of the AP poll and each failed. As a matter of fact, the Wildcats were one of those teams. They were chosen the No. 1 team the very first week. St. John's of Brooklyn fell victim to the jinx last week. Upset by Minnesota two weeks ago, Kentucky regained the top rung by crushing St. John's, 81-40, and drubbing DePaul, 98-60, last week.

Unbeaten Illinois (5-0) moved up from third to second on the strength of successive victories over Oklahoma, North Carolina and DePaul.

Washington's Huskies vaulted from eighth to third on the strength of 17 first place nominations.

Top ten (first place votes in parentheses):

1. Kentucky (41) 863
2. Illinois (21) 827
3. Washington (17) 863
4. Kansas (13) 568
5. Indiana (11) 527
6. New York University (4) 334
7. St. John's 283

FIRST AID for Everybody

XI—General Directions for First Aid

(This is another of a series of articles, written especially for Central Press Association and this newspaper on first aid, a subject gripping the nation in the light of threatened atomic aggression. The articles are based on the American Red Cross First Aid course. First aid principles, applicable to atomic as well as other disasters, are outlined. The Red Cross offers a 21-hour course free which teaches fully the technique of first aid.)

By Central Press

PREVIOUS ARTICLES on first aid, based on the Red Cross textbook, went into as much detail as possible regarding treatment for various injuries or illnesses. This article is in the nature of a recapitulation to emphasize the purposes of first aid training and the directions for first aid.

In general, first aid principles as outlined in the standard Red Cross course apply even in an atomic tragedy though the approach may necessarily be changed to fit conditions. Civil defense first aid will be discussed in tomorrow's article. But to continue with purposes and general directions.

Purposes: To prevent accidents through ordinary precaution in or outside the home; to do the right thing at the right time in the event of injuries; to prevent added injury and danger by careful handling, and to procure the proper transportation. Remember that first aid is only temporary pending medical assistance.

DIRECTIONS:

- 1—Keep the injured person lying down, head level with the body. You may raise his head if the face is flushed and turn the head to one side if he vomits.
- 2—Look for severe bleeding, stoppage of breathing, poisoning, wounds, burns, fractures and dislocations. Remove enough clothing to determine the extent of the wound. If the victim is conscious, he can help you locate the injuries. If the patient is unconscious or semi-conscious after an accident, the cause usually is a head injury.
- 3—Make the patient comfortable and try to keep him cheerful. Quiet his fears. It is important for him to have a good mental attitude in order to promote co-operation and aid recovery.
- 4—Send someone to call a doctor and ambulance.
- 5—Keep calm. Don't be hurried into moving an injured person unless it is absolutely necessary.
- 6—Never give liquids to an unconscious person. If he is conscious and there is no evidence of abdominal injury, or that an operation may be necessary give him all the water he wants, slowly and in sips. Tea and coffee may help to keep him warm.
- 7—Keep onlookers away from the injured. Frequently they interfere with treatments.

3—Keep the injured person warm—body temperature.

4—Send someone to call a doctor and ambulance.

cash the ace and jack of spades, discarding diamonds from his hand. Then he went back to the hearts. Unfortunately for him, East had a natural heart trick and a fifth spade to cash. South had a few harsh words to say about his luck, but never dreamed that he had misplayed the hand.

If you haven't already seen it, look for the right way of playing the hand before you read on. It's really very simple.

In the other room, South began by taking the queen of clubs and the king and queen of spades, just as the first declarer did. Then South led a heart, but played low from dummy instead of putting up the king.

This was the key play. South was willing to give up one heart trick, but he wanted to give it up at a time when the defenders could take nothing else.

East won with the eight of hearts and returned a diamond. South took the ace of diamonds, entered dummy with the king of hearts, and cashed the ace and jack of spades to discard his losing diamonds. It was then a cinch to return to his hand with a club in order to cash the rest of the tricks.

Horses and Humans Please Note

SOME CHICKENS in Britain have an almost human look these days—they have taken to wearing what at a glance appear to be pin-nez. Actually, they are plastic blinkers designed to stop feather picking and cannibalism. Used with reported success, the blinkers will be exhibited at the British Industries Fair, next May 5th to the 16th.

Hit, Run Charge Is Put Against Driver

Robert J. Fresher, Russell R. D. 2, was arrested this morning on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident, and was to be arraigned this afternoon. The arrest came after an investigation by Warren Borough police which started December 21 when a car being driven by Steven Zock, 26 Glade avenue, at Fifth avenue and East street, was struck almost head-on by another car which swerved into Zock's lane of traffic. The offending car was pulled around into East street, the driver got out to scan the damages, then drove away at a high rate of speed. Mr. Zock, who had once before been involved in a similar accident, had been quick to memorize the license number on the car which struck him, and from then on the local police were busy trying to trace the driver. The number not being listed on local State Police records, a call was made to Harrisburg where it was determined the number was that of a DeSoto while Mr. Zock was sure it was carried by a light-colored 1949 Ford A continued probe showed the car now being driven by Fresher is a 1949 Ford, with corresponding tags.

Mr. Zock's daughter, Nany, aged 14, who was riding with him at the time of the crash, suffered knee and nose injuries. Damages to the two cars totalled approximately $100 each.

FINE HAS MEASURE TO HELP SCHOOL DIST.

Harrisburg, Dec. 28—(P)—If Gov. John S. Fine approves, school districts will be able to get commonwealth backing for loans to construct school buildings. At present there are two measures, approved by the general assembly in the last days of the session, on the chief executive's desk to set up the machinery and provide the first funds for the system.

Sheffield Youth Center Plans Dance

Sheffield, Dec. 28—The Sheffield Youth Center will hold a holiday dance at the American Legion home on Saturday evening, December 29th. The dance is scheduled to get underway at 9 p. m. with a floor show during intermission about 10.30 p. m.

M. L. Cain and his daughter, Mrs. Vangie Carlson, spent the Christmas weekend in Philadelphia at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rueben L. Cain.

The Rev. and Mrs. Hans Pearson have learned of the birth of a baby girl to their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lust, Stillwater, Minn., on December 11.

The couple's first child weighed seven pounds three ounces at birth and has been named Cheryl Susanne. The mother is the former Grace Pearson.

CHICAGO DIGS FROM HEAVIEST SNOWFALL

Chicago, Dec. 28—(P)—Snow-tions of it—slowly Chicago's big city pace to a prairie-land walk today.

Weary crews of workers and other thousands battled to remove piles of snow which nearly paralyzed transportation in the nation's second largest city.

Snow shoveling was the major outdoor activity in the metropolitan area on Christmas day. A Christmas Eve storm left a fresh blanket of more than eight inches of snow on the already snow-covered city.

LEAGUE PLANS SKATE

Luther Leaguers of First Lutheran church have planned a skating party at the Sheffield rink from eight until eleven Thursday evening. All joining the party are asked to meet at the church at 7:15 and are advised tickets may be had from an League member or at the church office.

HOLIDAY RALLY

Members of the Gra-Y Clubs in the grade schools of Warren and vicinity are reminded of the big Christmas Rally scheduled for Thursday night at seven o'clock on the second floor of the "Y". The program, which will be under the leadership of Dan Walton and Allen Anderson, will include games, movies, carol singing, topped off with refreshments. There is no cost involved.

JOINING HUSBAND

Mrs. Veronica Crockett, 231 Liberty street, has left for Norfolk, Va., where she will join her husband, Charles C. Crockett, BTG/3, USNR, who has just returned after seven months in Korean waters aboard the destroyer USS Stormes, DD-780. Mr. Crockett served 32 months in the U. S. Navy during World War II, was recalled to active duty in September, 1950, and was released from naval service December 24, 1951. They expect to drive to St. Petersburg, Fla., before returning home.

RACES TOMORROW

Cadets, juniors and older boys of the YMCA will have a chance to show their stuff on the track tomorrow afternoon in the annual train races to be held on the second floor of the YMCA starting at 1:30. Dan Walton, general secretary, who will be in charge of the program, announces that races will be held in each division, followed by a free for all. Valuable prizes will be given the winners. Boys planning to participate should note that only three coaches can be used with the engine and that the track and transformer will be furnished by the "Y".

COMPLETELY RECOVERED

Mr. and Mrs. George Fales, of Pittsfield, elderly people who were almost fatally poisoned with carbon monoxide gas from a defective stove pipe about a week ago, have completely recovered from the effects of their misfortune and yesterday entertained their children and families for Christmas. Present for the affair were Ray Fales, of Youngsville; Mrs. Harold Mader, of North Warren; and William Fales, who is a seaman aboard a tanker for the Tidewater Oil Company. Another son, Harold, was unable to be present. Much of the credit for saving the lives of the elder Fales can be given to the rescuer of the Youngsville Fire Department, and to the firemen who manned the equipment. They were Chief Merle See, Lee Sittler and Donald Abraham.

Notice is hereby given that a meeting of the members of the Warren Community Chest, Inc., (those who have paid $10 or more) will be held at the office of the Community Consumer Discount Company at Pennsylvania Avenue and Hickory Street in the borough of Warren, Pennsylvania on Tuesday, January 8, 1952 at 7:30 p. m. for the purpose of electing a board of directors, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

In accordance with the terms of the Constitution, the following have been nominated for the office of director:

- N. D. Paterson
- T. K. Creal
- E. H. Ley

COMMON STOCKS AND THE COST OF LIVING

If you owned the store where you buy your groceries, you would not mind so much the rise in prices... even partial ownership of the store would be helpful... if you owned the common stock of the company running the store, that would also help. It has long been a favorite way to purchase an interest in a business. Advertisements in the paper sometimes suggest that you help pay your electric light bill through buying stock in the company which supplies you... or help to pay your fuel bill by buying stock in your gas company. Why not buy an interest in American Telephone Company, General Motors, Chrysler, Goodrich Rubber, Kennecott Copper, Gulf Oil, duPont, Texas Company, Standard Oil, Sears Roebuck, Westinghouse and many others and have them all in a single certificate of one of our leading investment companies?

When down town, why not call at our office for a prospectus and full information on any of the leading investment companies???
